Policies

As part of our commitment to combating modern slavery, we have implemented an Anti-Slavery Policy.

We make sure our suppliers are aware of our policies, and adhere to the same high standards.

Due Diligence

As part of our efforts to monitor and reduce the risk of slavery and human trafficking occurring within our supply chains, we have adopted due diligence procedure which are designed to:

- establish and assess areas of potential risk in our business and supply chains
- monitor potential risk areas in our business and supply chains
- reduce the risk of slavery and human trafficking occurring in our business and supply chains
- provide adequate support for whistleblowers

Risk and Compliance

HORIBA MIRA Ltd regularly evaluates the nature and extent of its exposure to the risk of modern slavery occurring in its supply chain by adopting a risk-based approach to our contracting processes.

We ensure all our suppliers adhere to our anti-slavery policy. We enforce a strict code of compliance and have a zero-tolerance approach to slavery and human trafficking within our supply chains.

If we find evidence of a failure to comply with our policies, we will immediately seek to terminate our relationship with the relevant supplier.

Effectiveness

As part of ongoing risk assessments and due diligence HORIBA MIRA Ltd may carry out audits of suppliers to ensure that they are complying with our anti-slavery and human trafficking policy.

Training

We are committed to educating our staff to recognise the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our business and supply chains. Employees are encouraged to identify and report any potential breaches of the organisations anti-slavery and human trafficking policy

This statement is made in accordance with section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes HORIBA MIRA Ltd's slavery and human trafficking statement.
